

Your First Customers

Who will you get to help you begin your business? Your friends and family, of course! Who else would be willing to help you have a successful start?

Think of everyone you know that needs skin care or glamour and that you think may be willing to host a party or have a facial with you. Of these put a check mark next to the top 10 who you think DEFININTLY will help you get started and to whom you'll send a post card.
